OakTree
Management & Training Ltd

Leading a Project Team

INTRODUCTION

The best way to ensure project success is to build a motivated and committed project team, this programme addresses the skills required to become a leader which creates the conditions in which individual+ team members can contribute their best.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, delegates will have:

- Developed the leadership skills to build successful project teams

- Learnt how to integrate leadership characteristics into their project management style

- Reviewed how to develop their teams from ordinary to extraordinary using a customer driven focus

- Reviewed methods of monitoring and sustaining team performance from project conception to completion

- Learnt how to identify and manage conflicts that can impact on high performance

COURSE CONTENTS

Leadership Styles
Matching your style to the needs of your team

What makes an effective team?
Components of Team Development

Identifying leadership actions that encourage high performance

Conflict Management
Handling difficult situations

Negotiating to reach consensus

Creating your project leadership action plan

Personal Development Action Plan
Throughout this course there will be a number of practical exercises carried out which will enable delegates to put into practice must of the theory covered

COURSE DURATION: 2 Day Course

www.oaktree-training.co.uk