

CDM Awareness

Introduction

This course is for anyone involved in construction, refurbishment, demolition or any other area that is affected by these regulations

The course is designed to provide delegates with an understanding of the CDM Regulations, differences from the previous regulations and the purpose of these. The Roles and responsibilities of the 'duty holders'.

It will also cover the Control of Contractors, Risk Assessments, Proactive Health & Safety

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, delegates will have:

- Knowledge of Health & Safety Legislation in relation to the new Regulations.
- An understanding of the requirements of direct and contract employment of construction workers.
- Understood the responsibilities of 'Duty Holders' in relation to the Regulations
- Understood the requirements of Risk Assessment
- The skills to assist the organisation by influencing health, safety and welfare in construction projects.
- The ability to develop documentation to ensure legal compliance and ensure continued business improvement.

Course Content

- CDM Regulations 2015 - Key points
- Purpose of the Regulations
- Roles and Responsibilities
- Planning and Management – 'Client Duties'
- Control of Contractors
- Risk Assessments
 - Risk Perception
 - Development of Risk Assessments
 - Hazard and Risk
 - Risk Control Systems
 - Workplace Precautions
- Pro-active Health & Safety
 - Inspections and Audits
 - Surveys and sampling
 - Record Keeping
- Action Planning – Individual and Company

Duration: 1 Day Course

www.oaktree-training.co.uk

