

Are you looking to maximise your funding opportunities with a provider with International Health & Safety Auditing, Leadership and Management experience and secure yourself the best opportunities for your future career? Then look no further, our dedicated Resettlement team at Oak Tree can prepare you for a successful future.

Why Choose Oak Tree as your Resettlement training provider?

As an Approved Learning Provider for the ELC and CTP Schemes, our main aim is to provide you with the highest quality resettlement Blended, Classroom and e-learning training packages to ensure that you make the most effective and efficient transition to your new career. We have created accredited training course packages enabling you to gain both internationally and nationally recognised training qualifications, including NEBOSH National General Certificate, Construction, Fire, Environment, IRCA-Auditing, IOSH and ILM (Institute of Leadership & Management), Levels 3 and 5, gaining with access to the BA Business and Enterprise Degree.

We have a proven track record, case studies from successful past resettlement candidates confirms our unique service and certificated training packages, maximising your opportunity for a future career. Our multi course Training Packages and Service includes preparing you for a new career with Personality Questionnaires/Profiling, 1:1 Coaching, CV creation/development, interview support-face to face and via the web.

Preparing for your resettlement should not be underestimated. When you are considering who to support you, you don't just need a training company, you deserve an organisation of dedicated people to help, guide and inspire you, to prepare you for possibly what is one of your next biggest challenges after military life.

Our team at Oak Tree has the experience and professionalism to help you gain internationally recognised qualifications, giving you invaluable practical guidance and real work-life experiences. These qualifications are relevant to the current employment market place and will enable you to compete from day one of your completion.

The courses are learner-centred, challenging and enjoyable; they offer flexibility as they are offered at a range of UK locations on a regular basis. A creative environment exists with our trainers utilising delegate's pre- course forms to identify specific areas of development and learning styles.

Our multi course blended programmes use a variety of media and techniques for learning, including text, sound, graphics, photography, animation, simulation, video, tutorials, automated assessments and more. We also offer a blend of these medias, with traditional learning approaches, such as coursework, action learning and coaching. Something to suit every learning style preference and ability.

Telephone Steve Crowe 01284 763 040

Email- steve@oaktree-training.co.uk